1.1 Overview and identification

Title of dataset

Statistics of the banks' profit and loss accounts

German title

Gewinn- und Verlustrechnung der Banken

Abbreviation

GuV

Dataset abstract

The statistics of the banks' profit and loss accounts are compiled using data on the income and expenses of German MFIs. In addition they include the calculation of balance sheet profits and losses, their main components, as well as ratios such as the return on equity. This involves the evaluation of the profits and losses calculated from the annual accounts which the banks must submit to the Bundesbank pursuant to section 26 of the German Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz). As the annual accounts apply to the whole institution (but not to the group), the income and expenses of foreign branches are also covered. The values for the balance sheet capital, balance sheet total and other stock variables are not taken from the annual accounts but are calculated as annual averages on the basis of the monthly balance sheet statistics reported for the institution as a whole.

Preliminary data is available after publication of aggregated results in the Bundesbanks' Monthly Bulletin in September and final data after publication of final aggregation in the internet in spring. The research data are available on a yearly basis from 1999 onwards. Data from 1993 to 1998 are available on request.

1.2 Dataset scope and coverage

Legal framework

For the standard data set of the banks' profit and loss accounts statistic (GuV) only already published figures are accessed and so for them there is no need for a legal basis. However, the reporting rules of the Accounting Regulation for Credit Institutions (Verordnung über die Rechnungslegung der Kreditinstitute (RechKredV)) and of the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch (HGB)) governing single-entity financial statements apply, particularly: German Commercial Code (HGB) § 242 Duty for statement

“(2) He (note: the merchant) has for the fiscal year-end to compile a contrasting juxtaposition of profits and losses of the financial year (profit and loss accounts).”

Regulation on the financial accounting of the credit institutions and the financial services institutions (“RechKredV”) Section 4 Regulations concerning selected items of the profit and loss accounts (Forms 2 and 3)

- §28 Interest received
- §29 Interest paid
- §30 Commissions received, commissions paid
- §31 General administrative spending
- §32 Special depreciation and value adjustments as well as appropriation to provisions, special income
- §33 Special depreciation and value adjustments, special income

The results from the profit and loss accounts are based on the published annual reports of the individual institutions in accordance with the provisions set forth in the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch or HGB) and the Regulation on the Accounting of Credit Institutions (Verordnung über die Rechnungslegung der Kreditinstitute, or RechKredV). They differ in terms of their conception, structure and definitions from the internationally customary IFRS (International Financial Reporting Standards) accounting standards for capital market-oriented banking groups, which means that - from a methodological viewpoint - the respective business results and certain balance sheet or individual profit and loss items are not comparable across the national and international accounting frameworks. For reasons of comparability within Germany, it is advisable to consider the individual accounts when analysing the financial performance. Using group accounts would make a meaningful analysis difficult as, first, many German banks are not part of a group, implying that their individual accounts drawn up in accordance with the German Commercial Code would still have to be used; second, not all group accounts are prepared according to international accounting standards. The published figures cover affiliations of foreign banks whereas the research dataset excludes them due to legal restrictions.

Unit of analysis

Each line in the dataset corresponds to a report of characteristics of monetary financial institutions.

Geographic coverage

Germany

Universe

In principle, all institutions with reporting obligations to the monthly balance sheet statistics are the universe of the profit and loss accounts. These are the domestic banks (MFIs), with the status of a deposit-taking credit institution within the meaning of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms. As the annual accounts apply to the whole institution (but not to the group), the income and expenses of foreign branches are also covered.²⁾

Historical changes

Since 1999

- Profit and loss accounts for building and loan associations included
- “total assets” (variable gvK120) equal the balance sheet total from the monthly balance sheets statistics. Prior to 1999 “total assets” were calculated as balance sheet total plus liabilities arising from the endorsement of rediscounted bills, bills of exchange in circulation drawn by the credit institution, discounted and credited borrowers, and bills sent from the bill portfolio prior to expiry for collection.

- Affiliations owned by a bank from outside the European Union are excluded.

Since 2020

- For the research dataset the identifier and its name was changed. Up to reporting year 2018, the identifier (gvBAID) was the same as for the domestic parts of the institutes though legally dependent affiliates abroad are included in a banks profit and loss account. Beginning with reporting year 2019 the identifier of the multi-office institutes (BAID_MOF) is used. The micro-data warehouse of the Bundesbank (HdM) still uses the identifier of the domestic part.

- Deletion of the variables gvS350, gvS353, and gvS355 since they are identical to gvS050, gvS052, and gvS054.
- Many labels are rephrased without any change of contents.

² For the categories the reporting agents; in addition, the business volumes in question would have been expanded disproportionately.

Sample Size

All German banks (MFIs), with the status of a deposit-taking credit institution within the meaning of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms, provide a monthly report of their balance sheet. Excluded are affiliations of foreign banks, incomplete business year, banks in liquidation or similar. There are banks with no profit and loss account for one or several years. Six banks have none for one year and one bank has none for two consecutive years though reporting to the monthly balance sheet statistics during all these months. There are additional eight banks with no profit and loss account during three up to nine consecutive years. During these years they do not report to the monthly balance sheet statistic either. For five out of these eight banks this may be due to the fact that the MFI definition changed in 1999 because of monetary union. Thus, in 1999 these banks were no MFIs anymore but became MFIs again some years later. There is also a shell company taking up regular work after some years. Further, for a small number of institutes the financial year differs from the calendar year. The profit and loss accounts of these institutes are allocated to the year of the finalisation, i. e. if the financial year ends February 2016, the profit and loss account is allocated to calendar year 2016.

Response rate

Supervision

Within the first quarter of the financial year banks must submit their financial accounts including the profit and loss accounts to the Bundesbank pursuant to section 26 of the German Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz). This is supervised by the banking supervision.

1.4 Missing values

For technical reasons several databases of the Bundesbank require a missing value classification. For the banks' profit and loss accounts this information is more elaborated than required, in particular with respect to the data that only building and loan associations have to report.

In the research datasets the harmonized type of missing (or non-missing) value is coded

If the type of missing value is N, the corresponding value in the data is set to zero.

N (unreported zero amount) is used for most missing values. The main rationale is that in the banks' profit and loss accounts the total profit has to be reported. Thus the profit can be calculated and compared to the reported profit. Often there is a small difference but this should be due to rounding.

M (data cannot exist) is used for the allocations to the funds for hedging saving and loan contracts. It exists for building and loan associations only.

L (data exists but not collected) is used for the breakdown of interest income, income expenditure, commissions received and commissions paid according to saving and loan contracts and other business. This must not be reported by MFIs that are not building and loan associations but many banks have these incomes and expenditures though not all and every year.

K (nothing available) is used for some ratios where due to rounding the denominator is zero. Thus the ratio is not defined. This occurs rarely.

P for provisional value is used in the provisional dataset that is normally provided in September.

For technical reasons, in the provisional dataset some missing values are set to zero. There is a file `GuV_prov_miss.do` replacing these zeros by missing values.

1.5 Aggregates

The Bundesbank publishes several tables for the banks' profit and loss accounts on its homepage <https://www.bundesbank.de/resource/blob/804030/f618607f48f3ed5b1e8ca70f3ac94ee5/mL/viii-gewinn-und-verlustrechnungen-der-banken-data.pdf>

These figures are straightforward aggregates of the individual data with the exception of values for the balance sheet capital, balance sheet total and other stock variables. Minor discrepancies in the figures for the breakdown by category of bank arise due to reclassification of banks. Variable names (see section 2) and tables are closely related. We report the titles of the tables together with the corresponding capital letters of the variable names:

- No 01: Overview of profitability of German banks by category of bank (S)
- No 02: Relative importance of key income and expense items by individual category of bank (K)
- No 03: Credit institutions' interest income (E)
- No 04: Cost/income ratio by category of bank (S300, S050)
- No 05: Breakdown of other and extraordinary income or charges (A, E)
- No 06: Return on equity by category of bank (EK11, EK15)
- No 07: Important components of the profit and loss accounts by category of bank (P)

- No 08: Credit institutions' profit and loss accounts (K)
- No 09: Credit institutions' expense items (A)
- No 10: Credit institutions' income items (E)

"Total assets" correspond to variable gvK120.

1.6 Data appraisal

Quality checks

For data checking process a bottom-up approach is used to guarantee high quality of micro data. Note that individual sums are not reported but calculated.

Plausibility checks and outlier identification

- A lot of plausibility checks are performed on each report
- Comparison of the reporting values with the transmitted data of the previous month and the previous year
- Consistency checks
- Comparison checks between the "Statistics of the banks' profit and loss accounts" and BSI-statistics
- Outlier detection
- Completion check: List of agents which have not yet reported
- For the research dataset checking of the reconciliation formulae. No adjustment for rounding errors.

1.7 Data editing

There is no fixed schedule. MFIs have to submit their profit and loss accounts within the first quarter of the financial year.

1.8 Data accessibility

Research proposal conditions

A research proposal is checked for feasibility of the research project given the research data, i.e. the suitability of the data to answer the research questions raised by the proposal. The research project must be of public interest, that is without commercial goals.

Institutional access conditions

The researcher must be affiliated with a research institution that clearly has a scientific, noncommercial agenda.
