Application for participation in the electronic procedure MACCs (Mobilisation and Administration of Credit Claims) for the submission and administration of credit claims as collateral with the Deutsche Bundesbank as Correspondent Central Bank (CCB)

We apply for participation in the Deutsche Bundesbank's electronic procedure MACCs (Mobilisation and Administration of Credit Claims) to provide credit claims under German law as collateral eligible for monetary policy operations to our home central bank (HCB), the

By submitting a disbursed and thus existing credit claim to the Deutsche Bundesbank in its function as CCB, we assign the credit claim as collateral to the HCB according to the "General declaration of assignment of credit claims to a home central bank (HCB) with the Deutsche Bundesbank acting as correspondent central bank (CCB)", which we have submitted separately. We shall inform the Deutsche Bundesbank of any changes to an assigned credit claim (in particular, changes to the amount as a result of redemption or a partial redemption and changes to maturity or to the debtor's creditworthiness) without delay so it can update the collateral provided.

To the extent required in the MACCs procedure, the latest version of the following additional terms and conditions will be included by analogy in the legal relationship with our HCB to form the basis for the use of credit claims and their submission and administration in MACCs:

- General terms and conditions of the Deutsche Bundesbank (AGB/BBk)
- Special terms and conditions for the electronic procedure MACCs for submitting credit claims as eligible assets (MACCs Terms & Conditions)
- General terms and conditions for the Bundesbank ExtraNet (AGB ExtraNet – in German only)
