

Web seminar

“Cash use in Germany: Cash hoarding by German households – an empirical analysis of how much cash they store and why”

Tuesday, 26 January 2021 All times are UTC+1.

| | |
|-----------------|--|
| 15:00– 15:05 | Housekeeping notice |
| 15:05– 15:15 | Welcome remarks |
| | Professor Friedrich Schneider (Johannes Kepler University Linz) |
| 15:15– 15:45 | Presentation |
| | Cash use in Germany: Cash hoarding by German households – an empirical analysis of how much cash they store and why |
| | Dr Martina Eschelbach (Deutsche Bundesbank) |
| 15:45 – 16:15 | Moderated discussion |
| | Cash as a store of value – determinants of cash hoarding in different countries |
| | Dr Martina Eschelbach (Deutsche Bundesbank) |
| | Professor Friedrich Schneider (Johannes Kepler University Linz) |
| | Professor Franz Seitz (Weiden Technical University of Applied Sciences) |
| | Alejandro Zamora (European Central Bank) |
| At around 16:15 | Closing remarks |